Minister of Health, Dr Zwelini Mkhize, to launch South Africa's Human Rights Plan

The Minister of Health, Dr Zwelini Mkhize will lead a march in Durban Central against human rights violations in response to HIV, TB and gender-related service barriers on behalf of Deputy President David Mabuza who is the chairperson of SANAC. The march will be followed by the launch South Africa's Human Rights Plan at Gugu Dlamini Memorial Park at Ethekewini (behind the Workshop Shopping Complex) in central Durban.

The launch will serve as a precursor to the 9th SA AIDS Conference scheduled for 11 to 14 June at Durban's ICC.

The Minister Dr Zwelini Mkhize will be joined by other government officials, civil society and development partners.

Members of the media and the public are invited as follows:

Date: 11th June 2019

Time: 10h00 to 12h00

Venue: King Dinuzulu Statue (opposite Durban Christian Centre) next to Gugu Dlamini Memorial park
