MEDIA ADVISORY & INVITATION

Annual Rotary Family Health Days Campaign

Pretoria: Sunday, 13 November 2022 – The Minister of Health, Dr Joe Phaahla will on Tuesday, 15 November lead the commemorative event of annual Rotary Family Health Days Campaign in KwaMashu, in KwaZulu-Natal as part of joined efforts to take health services to the people, especially those travelling distance to their nearest health facilities to access basic health services.

Minister Phaahla will be accompanied by the several leaders of government and non-governmental organisations including the Premier of KwaZulu-Natal, Mrs Nomusa Dube-Ncube, MEC for Health, Ms Nomaquu Simelane, Deputy Minister of Health, Dr Siboniseni Dhlomo, the Rotary President Mr Gordon McNally and the leadership of SANAC Civil Society Forum.

The Rotary Family Health Days (RFHD) campaign is a public-private partnership between government, SANAC, Rotary International and various organisations aimed at bringing a comprehensive package of free primary and specialised health services to identified underserved communities across the country on a three-consecutive days during the month of November every year.

The Minister will also use this opportunity to unveil the theme for 2022 World AIDS Day Campaign which serves to unite the people in the fight against HIV and to show support for people living with pandemic, while honouring those who have died from an AIDS-related illness.
