DEPUTY MINISTER OF HEALTH TO DELIVER KEYNOTE ADDRESS AT THE CHRISTIAN HEALTH ALLIANCE SUMMIT

The Deputy Minister of Health, Dr Sibongiseni Dhlomo will today (Friday, 20 October) deliver a keynote address at the Christian Health Alliance (CHA) Summit held in Pretoria. He will be joined by the Gauteng MEC for Health and Wellness, Ms Nomantu Nkomo-Ralehoko at the summit.

The alliance which celebrates 15 years of existence has fostered close working relations with the Department of Health on the spiritual wellness of patients and health workers who offer health and wellness services to them over the years.

This summit takes place during Mental Health awareness month which goes hand in hand with spiritual wellness. Some of the issues to be discussed in the summit include reflections on spirituality and health, promotion of spiritual wellness, mobilisation of health professionals as companions in health and wellness.

Members of the media are invited to the summit as follows:

Date: Friday, 20 October 2023
Time: 18h00
Venue: Pure Joy Lodge & Conference Centre, Pretoria

Theme: Restoring God's rightful place in Healthcare in South Africa'

Issued by the Christian Health Alliance and National Department of Health
